

SNEAK PREVIEW, WOOD REUNION VA. BEACH,
OCT. 14-17, 2010

Looking ahead, thought you'd like to know what's in store for us next year! Since our last visit, we've added almost 500 to our number and within 500 miles there are over 800 shipmates, including 50 locally (within 50 miles)!

We've locked in a 99 room all oceanfront AAA two diamond hotel (Surfside Oceanfront) locally owned and operated. Rate is $54/night, $62.02 inclusive, with continental breakfast. Excellent comp hospitality and banquet room . We're shooting for 100 shipmate attendance. See www.virginiabeachsurfside.com

Some ideas being considered:

A ship visit to one of the new Aegis class destroyers, subject to availability and security condition in effect and a "windshield" bus tour of the Norfolk Naval Base.

Norfolk harbor tour and lunch, going by the piers and ships

A golf outing for those interested. A few miles from the hotel.

Ocean fishing, either head boat or charter, on your own.(OYO)

Visit to the Cayce Association for Research and Enlightenment

Shopping for the ladies Lynnhaven Mall (6 miles), McArthur

Mall Norfolk(16 miles)OYO.

Tour of colonial Williamsburg, OYO or by bus if enough interest

"Warbirds over the beach" museum, featuring 23 WWII restored aircraft, both US and enemy (See flier). Admission $10, with

WW II vets FREE! OYO or group visit. Trip to Nauticus museum downtown Norfolk and battleship Wisconsin (BB64).

(By our reunion, some internal spaces of the ship should be open for visitation!) Am interested in (not a commitment):

With the above in mind, would like to get an indication of interest
